

Making Plurals

Note for parents and carers:

Nouns are the names of people, places, things or feelings. When there is more than one of something, it is called the 'plural' form of the noun. For most nouns, the plural is created by adding the suffix '-s' and nothing else needs to change.

Here is a noun:	Make it plural by adding -s:	Now, write the whole word again:
cat	cat_
tap	tap_
mat	mat_
cap	cap_
book	book_
cake	cake_
apple	apple_
sock	sock_
bottle	bottle_
spoon	spoon_
bed	bed_
week	week_

Adding '-es'

Note for parents and carers:

Nouns are the names of people, places, things or feelings. When there is more than one of something, it is called the 'plural' form of the noun. For nouns that end in 'ch', 'tch', 'sh', 'x', 's', 'ss' or 'zz', the plural is made by adding the suffix '-es'.

Here is a noun:	Make it plural by adding -es:	Now, write the whole word again:
witch	witch__
fox	fox__
dish	dish__
buzz	buzz__
crash	crash__
box	box__
sandwich	sandwich__
push	push__
boss	boss__
wish	wish__
gas	gas__

Noun Sorting

Sort these nouns according to how the plural would be spelt:

fox      song      witch      week      dog      smile coat      night      box      kiss      hat      itch      fizz

ends with 's'	ends with 'es'

Challenge: Choose one word from each column and use it in a sentence.
