

The Very Hungry Caterpillar Planning.

Today we are going to re-write the end of the story. Think about how you might improve these sentences before you write it.
If you can watch my video on the blog to help you with this.

Story	little caterpillar	big and fat	because.....	extra information
Now he wasn't hungry anymore and he wasn't a little caterpillar any more. He was a big, fat caterpillar.	Can you think of a different adjective for little?	Can you think of some different adjectives for big and fat?	Why was he like this?	Can you add any more detail?
story	built	Small house	nibbled	Extra information
He built a small house, called a cocoon, around himself. He stayed inside for more than two weeks. Then he nibbled a hole in the cocoon, pushed his way out and.....	What other verbs can you think of for built? What adverbs could you include?	How else would you describe the house?	What adverbs could you use to describe how he nibbled out of the hole?	Can you add any more detail?
story	beautiful and.....	What did he do as a butterfly?
He was a beautiful butterfly!	What other adjectives could you add to beautiful to describe the butterfly?	How will you finish your story?

Writing examples

When you re-write this part remember to include your adjectives, verbs and adverbs to your sentences.

Now he wasn't starving anymore and he wasn't a teeny caterpillar anymore. In fact, he was a large, plump caterpillar!

He decided to construct a compact house called a cocoon around himself. He slept inside for more than a fortnight. All of a sudden he slowly nibbled a hole in the tough cocoon and wriggled his way out.

He had become and beautiful and magnificent butterfly. He stretched his delicate wings and floated gentle on to a sweet smelling rose and rested.