

World Book Day

Book character description:

As our topic is Wriggle and Crawl we would like you to listen to a story linked to a mini-beast. Our author focus is Eric Carle who wrote The Very Hungry Caterpillar. You can choose which story you would like to listen to and then we would like you to write a short character description of that mini-beast.

Use the planning sheet below to help you with your ideas. Think about what adjectives you might use to describe what your mini-beast looks like. What verbs and adverbs could you use to describe how it moves? How is your mini-beast feeling in the story? What type of character is he?

You might want to think about the adjectives and verbs we have used earlier in the week and you could also try and include some alliteration.

Once you have jotted some ideas down write some sentences to describe the character. You may want to draw a nice picture of your chosen mini-beast as well.

What character have you chosen?
What do they look like?	How do they move?
How does the character feel?	What is the character like in the story?
