

27. What season is the poem about? Tick one box.

spring

autumn

summer

winter

28. In line 29 the author uses 'white bedclothes' to refer to what? Tick one box.

sheets

leaves

snow

hail

29. The poet uses the words 'frolicked' and 'danced' to describe the leaves.

What do these words tell you about the way the leaves moved?

30. Find and copy two sentences from the poem that show the relationship of the tree to the leaves to be similar to a parent and child relationship.

1. _____

2. _____

31. The poet uses personification to make the leaves seem alive.
Find and copy two sentences from the poem that show this.

1. _____

2. _____

.....

32. 'It is so nice to go to bed.'

How does this compare to the way the leaves felt at the beginning of the poem?
Explain your answer in full using evidence from the poem.
